

Global(izing) cities: Governance, belonging and violence

June 4-5, 2018

International Conference

Organized by Tine Davids and Martijn Koster

Anthropology and Development Studies

Radboud University, Nijmegen

The Netherlands

Programme

Monday 4th of June

Location: Grotius building Gr -1.175

10.30-10.45 Opening room/coffee

10.45-10.55 Welcome and opening by the Dean of the Faculty of Social Sciences, Prof Michiel Kompier

10.55-11.00 Words of welcome by the Head of the Department of Anthropology and Development Studies, Prof Marja Spiereburg

11.00-11.10 Introduction of the workshop by the organizers

11.10-12.10 Key note: Prof Marianne Marchand (UDLAP, Mexico): Cities in worlding: Mexican cities' responses to globalization, followed by Q & A.

12.10-12.30 Photo exhibition Dr Sanne Derks: In search for belonging: Being deported to Mexico-City

Lunch

Location: Thomas van Aquinostraat: 6.01.01

14.00-14.30: presentation 1: Prof Luis Miguel Morales (BUAP, Mexico): (Il)legal, (in)secure and (dis)orderly Mexico-US migrations, the critical role of sanctuary cities.

14.30-15.00: presentation 2: Dr Olivier Kramsch (Radboud University): Lost Europe(s)

15.00-15.30 Discussant and plenary discussion (Dr Joris Schapendonk, Radboud University)

Coffee/tea break

16.00-16.30: presentation 3: Prof. Adriana Sletza Ortega Ramírez (BUAP, Mexico): Mexican federalism and migrant rights transnational advocacy.

16.30-17.00: presentation 4: Dr. Joris Schapendonk (Radboud University): Afrostars in Eurospace: Mobility-locality relations beyond the urban.

17.00-17.30: Discussant and plenary discussion (Dr Lothar Smith, Radboud University)

18.30: Dinner

Tuesday 5th of June

Location: Thomas van Aquinostraat: 6.01.01

10.00-10.30: Room open/ coffee

10.30-11.00: presentation 1: Prof Isidro Morales (Tecnológico de Monterrey, Mexico) Neo-extractivism and the competitiveness of the City Region, Monterrey and Mexico's northeast: Opportunities and risks.

11.00-11.30: presentation 2: Dr Francesca Pilo (University of Amsterdam) Everyday governance of electricity infrastructure: the spatial politics of maintenance, repair and disconnection in Rio de Janeiro

11.30-12.00: Discussant and plenary discussion (Prof Kees Koonings, University of Amsterdam)

Lunch

13.30-14.00: presentation 3: Prof R. Guy Emerson (UDLAP, Mexico) Civic responsibility in preventing crime and violence, the case of Puebla.

14.00-14.30: presentation 4: Dr Naomi van Stapele (Radboud University): 'We men live in a warzone': Police killings, gendered borders and bounding orders in Nairobi.

14.30-15.00: Discussants and plenary discussion (MA Carolina Frossard (PhD candidate, University of Amsterdam) and MSc. Wiebe Ruijtenberg (PhD candidate, Radboud University)).

Coffee/tea break

15.15-15.45: presentation 5: MSc. Lieke van der Veer (PhD candidate) and Dr Martijn Koster (Radboud University): Activists in the globalizing city: Volunteers and newcomers in Rotterdam.

15.45-16.15: Discussant and plenary discussion (Dr Anouk de Koning, Radboud University)

18.00: Dinner

This conference is financed by

- Martijn Koster's ERC Starting Grant – project "Participatory urban governance between democracy and clientelism: brokers and (in)formal politics"
- Radboud University Internationalisation Office
- In cooperation with the project Globalópolis/ Conacyt, México.